Seeing the banner, Miyuki recovers and makes a superb counterattack, finally qualifying herself for the Finals. After her triumph, Sakurada takes off to Japan, to try to rescue Miyuki's brothers and sister. And why has Keiichiro taken the same flight?! At last, the Wimbledon Finals! Urino is offering her hand while Choko's intense protest continues!

I HAVE TO GO!

The audience is showering Urino with boos for trying such a heavy-handed tactic to end the game!

PLEASE! YOU'VE GOTTA HURRY!

She's gathered her things, and she's leaving the court behind as quickly as possible!

And... Ueno is exchanging a very brief handshake with the judge...

The booing is getting louder!

THANK YOU FOR A GOOD MATCH!

Ueno has rushed back in front of Choko...

A runner similar to a high heel ... has stopped the grounds...

No

OFF: WILD CHEERING

This will surely be the crowning glory for the Queen of the Green!

She made her pro debut at age 14, and she's been dominating the Grand Slam tournaments ever since! She's set dozens of records, and she's won THREE previous championships at Wimbledon!

OFF: WILD CHEERING 11

But she shouldn't feel embarrassed! She'll always be remembered as Nikolic's...

The Choko vs. Nikolic match that the world was waiting for went up in smoke...

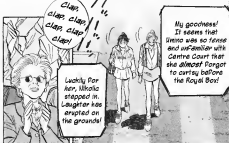

And yet the difference in skill between her and Queen Nikolic is quite evident!

Her opponent in Japan's Grand Slam, who dramatically made her way into the finals, didn't even bring a sweat!
